Gianna House Pregnancy and Parenting Residence

Gianna House Pregnancy and Parenting Residence, a registered 501(c)(3) organization will be a home for young pregnant girls, 17 years and younger. Our faith-based mission is to provide an alternative to abortion, to provide pregnant adolescents with a place of temporary shelter, to increase the number of healthy babies born and to decrease the high infant mortality rate. Our aim is to change the lives of these young girls who have chosen LIFE for their babies.

Renovations are ongoing in the former convent building at St. Veronica's in Eastpointe, MI. Gianna House is open and providing childbirth and parenting classes for the community at no charge.
